ZIYĀRAH ON THE `ARAFĀT DAY

Merits Be it known to you that the traditions that are reported from the Ahl al-Bayt the Immaculate and infallible about the merits and advantages of visiting Imam al-Ḥusayn (‘a) on the ‘Arafāt Day are innumerable. Heading for filling the dear believers with desire for visiting Imam al-Ḥusayn (‘a) on this day, we will hereinafter cite a few number of these traditions:

Bashīr al-Dahhān, through a valid chain of authority, has reported that he, once, said to Imam al-Sādiq (‘a), "Some years, I miss the ḥajj season; therefore, I present myself at the tomb of al-Ḥusayn (‘a)." The Imam (‘a) commented, "Well done, Bashīr! Any faithful believer who comes to the tomb of al-Ḥusayn, Allah’s blessings be upon him, with full recognition of his real position on a day other than the feast days, he shall be granted the reward of twenty times of admissible and acceptable ḥajj and twenty times of admissible and acceptable ‘umrah as well as the reward of participation in twenty campaigns with a commissioned prophet or a decent leader. Moreover, whoever comes to his (i.e. Imam al-Husayn) tomb on the ‘Arafāt Day, with full recognition of his real position, will be granted the reward of one thousand times of admissible and acceptable ḥajj and one thousand times of admissible and acceptable ‘umrah as well as the reward of participating in one thousand campaigns with a commissioned prophet or a decent leader."

Bashīr said, "What shall I be awarded if I present myself at Mount ‘Arafāt on that day?"

Somewhat angrily, the Imam (‘a) looked at him and said, "Bashīr, if a faithful believer comes to the tomb of al-Ḥusayn, Allah’s blessings be upon him, on the ‘Arafāt Day, washes himself with the water of the River Euphrates, and then turns his face for visiting him, Almighty Allah shall record for him the reward of an entire ḥajj along with all of its rituals for every step he makes."

The reporter then added, "Most probably, the Imam (‘a) added to this the reward of an entire ‘umrah (or campaign, according to another form of this report)."

According to many validly reported traditions, on the ‘Arafāt Day, Almighty Allah looks at the visitors of Imam al-Ḥusayn’s tomb with mercy before He looks at those gathering on ‘Arafāt Mountain.⁽¹¹¹⁾

According to another validly reported tradition, Rafā`ah reported that Imam al-Sādiq (‘a) once asked him, "Did you go on ḥajj this year?"

Rafā`ah answered, "May Allah accept me as ransom for you! I did not have enough resources to go to ḥajj. Rather, I could present myself at the tomb of al-Ḥusayn (‘a)."

The Imam (‘a) commented, "Rafā`ah, you have thus not failed to gain what those who presented themselves at Minā have gained! Were it not for that I do not want people to desert going on ḥajj, I would pass on to you a discourse that if you hear it, you will never leave visiting the tomb of al-Ḥusayn, Allah’s blessings be upon you."

The Imam (‘a) then paused for a while and then continued, "My father has told me that whoever travels to the tomb of al-Ḥusayn (‘a) recognizing his actual position and showing no pride, will be accompanied by one thousand angels on his right side and one thousand angels on his left. The reward of one thousand times of ḥajj and one thousand times of ‘umrah with a prophet or a prophet’s successor will also be recorded for him."
